November 2022 Newsletter

Hi Members

this is our penultimate newsletter for the year and we trust you, your family, and your friends are getting prepared for Christmas and New Year celebrations.

Our Club continues to be busy every day of the week and Sundays are also now quite popular with members and guests enjoying the Club facilities and refreshments while either at the dart boards, 8 ball tables or watching sport on any one of the many TV sets.

Always consider the Club as a great “escape” (if required) to watch the concluding games of the Qatar World Cup, cricket, horse racing or whatever.

Children’s Christmas Party was a real “hoot” on Sunday 27th November, great fun, games, food and presents. Huge thanks for all the helpers and to Santa for visiting our Club.

Kids Christmas Party

Father Christmas arrived on Sunday afternoon for the Kids Christmas Party. He was a great hit, and the children all seemed very happy with their lollies, drinks and gifts. Our restaurant provided yummy sausages, meat patties, onions, coleslaw, potato salad and bread & butter - finger licking good.

Open Cue Sports Adjunct News October 2022

Remarkably it came down to the last week to find the winner of this year's Business House Competition - Congratulations to Winning Team Tony's Place and to Runners-Up Gypsy's Zambucca.

Further congratulations go to the following Adjunct Members for their notable successes:

NZ Nationals - Billy McIntyre made the top 32 - an awesome achievement.

Taradale Pairs - Billy and his Dad, Paul, qualified for the final of this tournament going down in a close fought final to winners Brent Wells and Dean Garnett.

Greg Canty 9 Ball Competition - Knox Tohereri defeated Dave Morris 3-2 in an exciting final to take the trophy.

Maurie Bang Club Mixed Pairs Competition - Harvie and Margaret Graham repeated last year's effort and again won the trophy defeating Steve Pemberton and Ciara King in the final.

Vice Presidents Trophy - Tihema Meroiti (aka T-Bone) took out this competition beating Al Wehipeihana in the final.

Presidents Trophy (Drawn Pairs) - Knox Tohereri and Gary Abella took this title beating Crystalee Jane and Tom Pulman in an awesome final.

Well done to all our members who participated in any competitions this month.
